

EASTER MUSICAL - A SPECTACULAR HIT!

At its inaugural "Easter in the Mountains" Musical Spectacular held over two nights during the Easter weekend, the Blue Mountains City Church received huge ovations from its sell-out audiences.

The Worship & Creative Arts (WACA) director, Mrs Candy Brown said "It was a wonderful success and an awesome experience for our team members. It was a great opportunity for them to sing popular secular songs which the audience could relate to and enjoy!" "The feedback from people has been sensational" she said.

The event was not an Easter concert but a concert at Easter which showcased the various musical, dance, drama, production, and lighting talents of the 60+ WACA team of Blue Mountains City Church.

With songs from the Beatles (Hard Days Night), Celine Dion (Fever/Nature Boy), Jimmy Barnes (Gonna Take Some Time), Delta Goodrem (Born to Try/Mistaken Identity), Tony Bennett and KD Lang (What a Wonderful World), Frank Sinatra (New York, New York), Sunsets (Powderfinger), Carole King (Beautiful), Good Charlotte (We Believe) and many more, master compeer extraordinaire,

Mr. Clive Sinclair-Smith expertly pulled the songs together with his witty anecdotes and intertwined them with popular Easter songs such as "When I Survey the Wondrous Cross" (Kathryn Scott), "All for Love" (Hillsong) and You Raise Me Up (Josh Groban).

Renowned for its "Christmas in the Mountains" Spectacular held each year at Glenbrook Oval to an audience of thousands, the Blue Mountains City Church is set to continue to also achieve high accolades for its annual "Easter in the Mountains" Spectacular.
